For immediate release, January 26, 2010

CALGARY, AB — The Canadian Angus Association is pleased to announce the winners of the 2009 Gold Show Program:

The 2009 Black Show Bull of the Year is Justamere 406S Panamajack 36U, owned by Justamere Farms of Lloydminster, SK and John Lennox, John Ross Lennox and Scott Lennox of Brooklin, ON.

The 2009 Black Show Female of the Year is DMM Miss Essence 21R, owned by Dakota Wilson (Miller Wilson Angus) of Bashaw, AB.

The 2009 Red Show Bull of the Year is Red Ter-Ron Realdeal HFX 01W, owned by Terry Adams and Rob Adams of Forestburg, AB and Keith Adams of Calgary, AB.

The 2009 Red Show Female of the Year is Red Brylor SDL Lakme 204S, owned by Brylor Ranch of Pincher Creek, AB.

The winners will be recognized at the Canadian Angus Association's annual general meeting on June 19 in Halifax, Nova Scotia. The Canadian Angus Association congratulates the winners and thanks all who participated in the Gold Show program in 2009.

The Gold Show program was developed in 1989 by the Canadian Angus Association to provide an incentive for breeders to move between regions to show cattle. Awards for Red and Black Show Bull and Show Female are calculated based on the number of points accumulated over the show season.

The Canadian Angus Association is Canada's largest purebred beef breed organization. The Association represents 3,000 members across Canada for the purposes of registering and recording the pedigrees of purebred Angus cattle in the closed Herd Book and promoting the breed across Canada. The member-approved mandate is to maintain breed registry, breed purity and provide services that enhance the growth and position of the Angus breed.
