2010 Canadian Angus Association Gold Show Winners

For immediate release, January 10, 2011

CALGARY, AB — The Canadian Angus Association is pleased to announce the winners of the 2010 Gold Show Program:

The 2010 Black Show Bull of the Year is Justamere 406S Stabalizer 507U, owned by Justamere Farms of Lloydminster, SK.

The 2010 Black Show Female of the Year is Highgrove Miss Middlebrook 3U, owned by Gold Bar Livestock of Ariss, Ontario.

The 2010 Red Show Bull of the Year is Red Ter-Ron Realdeal 01W, owned by Terry Adams and Rob Adams of Forestburg, AB; Keith Adams of Calgary, AB; and Damar Farms of Strum, WI.

The 2010 Red Show Female of the Year is Red Redrich Cherokee 248U, owned by Katelyn Dietrich of Forestburg, AB.

The winners will be recognized at the Canadian Angus Association's annual general meeting on June 11 in Elkhorn, Manitoba. The Canadian Angus Association congratulates the winners and thanks all who participated in the Gold Show program in 2010.

The Gold Show program was developed in 1989 by the Canadian Angus Association to provide an incentive for breeders to move between regions to show cattle. Awards for Red and Black Show Bull and Show Female are calculated based on the number of points accumulated over the show season.

The Canadian Angus Association is Canada's largest purebred beef breed organization. The Association represents members across Canada for the purposes of registering and recording the pedigrees of purebred Angus cattle in the closed Herd Book and promoting the breed across Canada. The member-approved mandate is to maintain breed registry, breed purity and provide services that enhance the growth and position of the Angus breed.
