The Canadian Angus Foundation 2010 Annual General Meeting
June 21, 2010: for immediate release

CALGARY, AB — The Canadian Angus Foundation, the charitable arm of the Canadian Angus Association, held its annual meeting on Sunday, June 20 in Halifax, Nova Scotia following the Canadian Angus Association's 2010 annual general meeting.

Gary Harron of Allenford, Ontario, was elected the new Chairman of the Canadian Angus Foundation and started his role immediately, chairing the meeting.

A new logo for the Canadian Angus Foundation was approved, and a redesigned website (www.canangusfoundation.ca) was unveiled.

The Canadian Angus Foundation has hired a summer student to organize and catalogue the historical items in the collection of the Canadian Angus Association.

The Canadian Angus Foundation Board approved the creation of The Canadian Angus Foundation Memorial Scholarship. Specially designed envelopes for the collection of donations to the Canadian Angus Foundation were unveiled, making it easier for people to donate to both the Foundation and the scholarship fund.

Erika Easton of Wawota, Saskatchewan, won the 2010 Robert C. McHaffie Junior Ambassador Competition and is the new Junior Ambassador.

David Bolduc of Claresholm, Alberta was appointed to the Board of Directors. New President Kirk Wildman will serve as an ex-officio member of the Canadian Angus Foundation Board of Directors. Former Chairman Bob Switzer of Aneroid, Saskatchewan, and Canadian Angus Association Past President John Donaldson have both retired from the Board of Directors. Gary formally recognized and thanked both men for their dedication to the Canadian Angus Foundation.

The Canadian Angus Foundation functions to preserve and expand the Angus breed for future generations through education, youth development, scientific and market research, and historical restoration. The Canadian Angus Foundation was incorporated in 1993 and is the charitable arm of the Canadian Angus Association.
