Canadian Angus Tops at Denver's National Western Stock Show

January 14, 2010
For immediate release

CALGARY, AB — Canadian Angus breeders received more than an enthusiastic welcome at the 2010 National Western Stock Show in Denver — their cattle took Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion honours.

At the Red Angus Show held on Tuesday, January 12, Red Northline Trueblood 341T owned by Howard Schneider of Ardrossan, Alberta was named Grand Champion Bull and Red Lazy MC Cowboy Cut 26U owned by Clint and Angela Morasch of Bassano, Alberta; David and Lynne Longshore of Stettler, Alberta; and Mile High Land and Cattle of Stettler, Alberta was named Reserve Grand Champion Bull. The Grand Champion Female is Red Sooline Rainbow 9230, bred by Roger Hardy of Midale, Saskatchewan.

At Wednesday's Black Angus Show, Justamere 406S Panamajack 336U was named Reserve Champion Bull owned by Jonathon Fox of Lloydminster, Saskatchewan. The Black Angus females will show on Friday, January 15.

"This was a record year for Angus at the National Western Stock Show," says Doug Fee, CEO for the Canadian Angus Association. "We are thrilled to have Canadian Angus cattle receive such honours. There has been a great deal of interest in Canadian Angus genetics worldwide since we hosted the World Angus Forum last summer."

The Canadian Angus Association (www.cdnangus.ca) is a not-for-profit association incorporated under the Animal Pedigree Act. The Association represents 3,000 members and 12,000 commercial producers across Canada for the purposes of registering and recording the pedigrees of purebred Angus cattle and promoting the breed across Canada. Its member-approved mandate is to maintain breed registry, breed purity and provide services that enhance the growth and position of the Angus breed.
