The use of the letter “Q” is not permitted in tattoo letter combinations. The top row of the right ear tattoo will contain the breeder’s registered tattoo letters, the bottom row will contain a 1, 2, 3 or 4 digit number followed by the year letter that corresponds to the year the animal was born.

Herd Name

It is recommended that members of the Canadian Angus Association apply to register a herd name for use when naming your Angus cattle. Words like “Farm”, “Ranch”, or “Ltd.” cannot be part of a registered herd name. A herd name should be 16 or less characters, and cannot start with the word RED.

For example, a member whose farm name is Sunny Day Angus Ranch may choose to register the herd name Sunny Day, and therefore include Sunny Day when naming calves. Herd names can be shared between family members if written consent is provided.
