American Angus Association Beef Leaders Institute (BLI) Application Form

Awarded by the Canadian Angus Foundation

The Beef Leaders Institute (BLI) (<https://cabcattle.com/targeting-the-brand/events/beef-leaders-institute>) is designed for American Angus Association (AAA) members as a resource to provide insight to all segments of the beef industry. The Canadian Angus Foundation, in partnership with AAA, has secured space for two Canadian Angus representatives. The 2024 BLI takes place June 10–15. Travel, lodging and meals will be provided.

To be selected as one of two Canadian Angus representatives at the Beef Leaders Institute (BLI) in June, you must be a CAA member in good standing between the ages of 25–45, hold a valid Canadian passport, and be able to travel to the United States.

In a separate document, please provide answers to the following questions:

1. Describe your current role in the management of Angus cattle. List any involvement in Angus activities and/or associations, leadership positions held, honours and awards earned OR attach a one-page resume.
2. In one or two short paragraphs, explain why you are applying for Beef Leaders Institute and share what you hope to achieve by attending.
3. Describe some of your greatest challenges or concerns as an Angus breeder.
4. In your opinion, what tools or programs would most benefit you as a breeder?

To be considered for the award, return the completed application to the Canadian Angus Foundation by February 15 via email to bwagner@cdnangus.ca.

The Canadian Angus Foundation functions to preserve and expand the Angus breed for future generations through education, youth development, scientific and market research, and historical preservation and restoration. The Canadian Angus Foundation was incorporated in 1993 and is the charitable arm of the Canadian Angus Association.
